

Visiting Research Track

Appointees to this track must have employment responsibilities with another institution of higher education and are usually on leave from that institution. (e.g. here for a six month sabbatical.) Visiting Research Faculty appointments indicates that the individual is working for a limited portion of his/her time (part-time) on a research project housed in the University of Michigan Medical School.

Visiting Assistant Research Scientist: Candidates who are appointed to this rank must have a record of publications in peer-reviewed journals. Participation at professional meetings is typically present. Candidates for Assistant Research Scientist should demonstrate potential for scholarly development, possibly as part of a larger research program.
