

Research Scientist Track

Research Scientist Track faculty are typically part of a scientific team or have achieved independence in a research program and have demonstrated excellence in initiation, direction and completion of research projects. A record of peer-reviewed publications is expected.

Research Investigator: A person appointed to the position of Research Investigator must hold a doctoral degree or its equivalent in professional and technical experience and typically has completed two or more years of postdoctoral work. The typical candidate for this position is someone whose scholarly reputation is equivalent to a person who has recently completed a Ph.D. or M.D. and/or postdoctoral training and demonstrates evidence of potential for scholarship. Candidates for Research Investigator are not expected to have a record of institutional citizenship or teaching, although achievement in these areas is a welcome addition.
