

A Lecturer IV appointment is for a position that includes instruction and significant ongoing administrative or service duties within the academic unit, and/or requires a range of instructional expertise. A Lecturer IV holds a doctoral degree or its equivalent in professional and technical experience.