

Adjunct Instructional Track

Adjunct Instructional Faculty appointments are used to supplement teaching in a specific field; to facilitate research collaboration with individuals in other units of the School or University, with individuals at other educational or health care institutions, or with scientists employed by industry; or to permit faculty or trainees who are leaving the University to complete ongoing educational or research responsibilities.

Adjunct Lecturer appointment is for a position that includes instruction and significant ongoing administrative or service duties within the academic unit, and/or requires a range of instructional expertise. An Adjunct Lecturer holds a doctoral degree or its equivalent in professional and technical experience.
