

Lecturer II appointments are primarily for the teaching (and its related duties) of assigned courses. There is no requirement of any additional duties or responsibilities with this appointment; however the Lecturer II may on an occasional basis perform additional duties or responsibilities. A Lecturer II holds a doctoral degree or its equivalent in professional and technical experience.