

Research Scientist Track

Research Scientist Track faculty are typically part of a scientific team or have achieved independence in a research program and have demonstrated excellence in initiation, direction and completion of research projects. A record of peer-reviewed publications is expected.

Research Scientist: Appointment and promotion to this highest rank in the Research Scientist Track requires an internationally recognized record of continued excellence in research productivity and contributions. A Research Scientist will have a sustained record of first-author and/or senior-author publications in peer-reviewed journals. A Research Scientist will have served as principal investigator on center grants, major grants (e.g. NIH R01) or equivalent. A significant and sustained record of participation in relevant professional meetings is expected of a Research Scientist.